MAURICE SIEVAN

(Members' Invitation Exhibition)

FEBRUARY 10 to FEBRUARY 28, 1941

WEEKDAYS: 10-6

SUNDAYS: 2:30-5:30

MONDAY EVENINGS: 8:30-11:30

MAURICE SIEVAN, born in Russia in 1898, came to this country as a child. He studied art at Pratt Institute, The National Academy, The Art Students League of N. Y., and in Paris, where he exhibited in 1931.

Of his work, Gosta Larsson (author of "Our Daily Bread", etc.) says:-

"To make such a definite statement, this painter must have served a long and faithful apprenticeship. Joy in living and knowledge of life blend in a mellow humanity,—a poetic realism. By admirable mastery of detail, without pre-occupation with it, Mr. Sievan leads the eye briskly into the far distance,—revealing the inner nature of what is seen thru his conception of it."

Mr. Sievan held his first exhibition in March, 1939, under the sponsorship of the officers and trustees of Contemporary Arts. This second showing is at the invitation of the Members of Contemporary Arts.
